Event Manager Review
May 24th
Food Truck Night

Attendance - Slow but not too bad

Problems - None

Arrivals - Florida Juice Company showed up at 5pm on the dot but they drive all the way from the coast and their arrival doesn't cause any calamity.

Event Hours - The town's Facebook ad says the event ends at 9pm. See attached screenshot. It ends at 9:30pm right? Or has it changed?

The new pine straw kept the two typically popular seating areas pretty empty. These photos are taken around 7pm. I know it's crazy but can the pine straw be either leveled or lessened or removed for food truck night?

Some man was letting kids hold his parrot and it drew a crowd. Can we have a budget for fun stuff like a bounce house or a petting zoo or some form of activation that engages people?

What is SnoMo's

SnoMo's is a true Family-Owned business serving custom Hawaiian Shaved Ice with flavors made fresh daily. Each creation is 'Happiness in a cup' topped off with Whip Cream, Sprinkles, and a Cherry.

Modeling the Shaved Ice businesses in the western United States, SnoMo's was founded in 2018 by Scott & Sheri Morrison. Their goal was to:

- 1) Create a place where local teens could work, give them work experience and let them make money for next phase of their life.
- 2) Teach their kids about business.
- 3) Serve happiness to the community that they love!

Scott & Sheri have lived in the Orlando-Windermere area since 2013. All five of their kids currently are or will attend Olympia High School and they will have kids at that school for 14 consecutive years!

The Shack

The SnoMo's Shack is a classy mobile Food Truck Trailer measuring roughly 8' wide & 9' long. It features black & White stripes around the shack with fun doodles of shaved ice cups, ice blocks, spoons and pour bottle. Along the roof line are white blinking Turbo Lights. The shack certainly draws attention!
