WINDERMERE TOWN HALL

Windermere began in the mid-1880s when [unclear] built his home in the area, giving it and the [unclear] the name of Windermere. In memory of [unclear] of England. Other settlers followed, and [unclear] 1889, but the community was not formally [unclear]. The town council had no permanent meeting place. Citizens often met at the Windermere Woman's Club, which later became Town Hall. The two-story wood frame building was erected on the shore of nearby Lake Butler. It was moved to its present site in 1938 for use as a community center. It became the seat of local government in 1945. The existing Town Hall is the focus of civic and cultural activities in Windermere. Facilities found there include the Chamber of Commerce, all courts, a municipal office building, a Public Library Building, a small wood frame building [unclear]. Windermere's most prominent early residences were [unclear] served as both the town hall and the Cal Palmer Building are listed as Historic Places.
