

Form 1 and Form 6 filers will file electronically in 2024 via the Electronic Financial Disclosure Management System \(EFDMS\).

- UPDATE 6/12/24 8:00 A.M. – Updates to the form requirement for Mayors and City/Village/Town Governing Board Members have been made in EFDMS. Filers and candidates for those offices can now log into EFDMS and access the 2023 Form 1. Click here for updated information. On Monday, June 10, 2024, a Federal Court granted a preliminary injunction that changes the form filing requirement from a 2023 Form 6 back to a 2023 Form 1 for Mayors and City/Village/Town Governing Board Members. The ruling is effective immediately.
- If you are new to EFDMS and wish to access the system, visit the login page. Existing financial disclosure filers should click “I am a Filer” and follow the prompts. Individuals who need to file a disclosure form as a part of the process of qualifying for office, and you do not otherwise hold a position that requires you to file financial disclosure, go to the login page and click “I am a Candidate.”
- Have questions about the impact of electronic financial disclosure on the process of qualifying for office? We have answers. Read our FAQs and Tips for Qualifying in the EFDMS era for the information you need to know.
- Questions about e-filing in 2024? Read our Tips for e-filing in 2024.
- Are you leaving office or being appointed to fill a vacancy? Read our Fact Sheet outlining what form to file and when to file it, based on your dates of service.
- A Form 6 e-filing training video is available. A sample Form 6 is also available.
- Local filers who traditionally filed with their local Supervisors of Elections and had a public records exemption on file for redaction of certain information under Florida's Public Records Law, will need to file a public records exemption request with the Commission. It is highly recommended that filers make their exemption request with the Commission PRIOR to filing their disclosure form, so that the form can be routed for redaction prior to publishing on the website. Visit our forms page to access the Exemption Request Form. The form must be mailed to the Commission and can be filed now.
- All disclosures filed in EFDMS will be published on this website.
- On Friday, January 19, 2024, Senator Pizzo and Senator Gruters hosted a live Form 6 tutorial/Q&A session with the Commission's Deputy Executive Director and General Counsel, Steven Zuilkowski. The recording is now available.
